This year's editors of the Marketplace would like to express our deepest gratitude to our great illustrator, Linda Apperley. We would also like to acknowledge all of the many contributors that helped make our school paper successful. The hard work, creative thought and vision is beginning to come together, in the Marketplace's goal of being a viable medium of communication within the school. We hope that you were challenged at one time or another, intellectually, spiritually, or emotionally. Again, we thank the student body for all of the positive feedback we have received thus far. Next year we are looking forward to the Marketplace's twentieth anniversary with the hope that the Marketplace might be more fully established and accomplished than ever and that we might hand it on to those who will take it even further into O.B.C.'s heart.

When we look at this past school year at a glance, we remember our friends, and we remember those who touched our lives even for just a brief moment. We remember the times of fun and laughter, the times of tears and pain. We remember all the major and minor events that have taken place in our school and think of the experiences and challenges we took on that helped make us grow. We look at our past year here at O.B.C. and realize that in all we attempted to do, God was there! We hope you enjoy and treasure this book of memories, as much as we've enjoyed putting it together for you. "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

With His love,
The Yearbook Committee

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dr. William Merae

What a tremendous theme you have chosen for your Yearbook this year: "Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue, but with actions and in truth." (I John 3:18)

Love in action: What a rebuke! Its absence is too often a mark of the twentieth century church:

"I was hungry and you formed a humanities club and discussed my hunger. Thank you.

I was imprisoned and you crept off quietly to your chapel in the cellar and prayed for my release.

I was naked, and in your mind you debated the morality of my appearance.

I was sick and you knelt and thanked God for your health.

I was homeless and you preached to me of the spiritual shelter of the love of God.

I was lonely and you left me alone to pray for me.

You seem so holy; so close to God. But I'm still very hungry, and lonely, and cold . . ."

Witness Magazine

Love in action: What a challenge! Its presence was a distinguishing mark of the early church. Tertullian once wrote,

"It is our care for the helpless, our practice of loving kindness, that brands us in the eyes of many of our opponents. 'Look!' they say, 'How they love one another!'

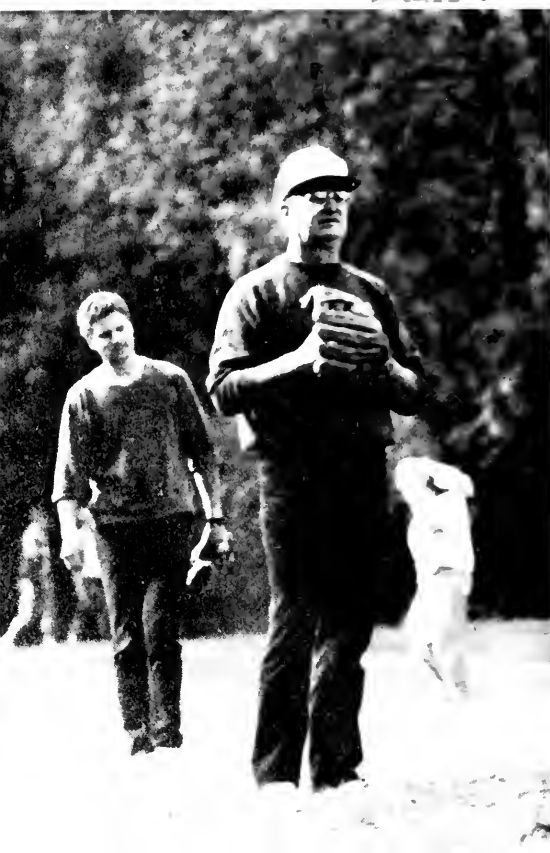

Look how they are prepared to die for one another!"

Are those days about to return?

The evidence indicates that the Lord is generating within His church a new and exciting vision for the world of A.D. 2000.

This will present to each of us opportunities to be part of something very significant! If it is ever going to be, from the human perspective it calls for love in action: yours and mine.

My most earnest prayer for each of us in the College community is that our theme for this year will be our pattern of life for years to come.

As I walk on your grass, O, Lord, your wind blows past me, And together we talk inside
You and I, just you with me
And I tell you the honesty and truth that you show me—
And then I walk away...

Why is my conversation
with you a different reality than that
with others?
I can't fight them
alone, I can't fight
myself alone.
Help me not to wander, Help me
not to fight against you, against myself. Help me to find your peace and peace in knowing I'm being what you made me. Linda

We tend to take love too seriously-criticism

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth." (2 Timothy 2:15) It is my hope and prayer that every OBC student will take this verse to heart.

The heart holds a place for memories of people that you grow to love. I thank the Lord for creating such a place in my heart which you have all filled. Thanks for your love and your laughs.

S.C. PREZ AND VICE PREZ'S MESSAGE

As the year draws to a close and we reflect back over it, there are many things we can be proud of as a student body. We have begun to develop an awareness of our world and its many problems. Problems to which we can respond as a Christian community. Issues such as abortion, world hunger, nuclear arms and pornography we looked at together in this last eight months. The overwhelming response to the abortion issue in the form of letters, petitions, prayers and the protest march (OBC's first ever!) was a source of great encouragement to us. It is our desire that we should continue to stand for Christ in matters which touch His creation. We saw your faith in action in our community as well. You prayed for and with each other and encouraged one another on a daily basis. Events such as the Day of Prayer, and Missions Conference were well attended and because of that many were blessed and the community as a whole benefitted.

The outside community also began to see glimmers of light from us as we spent time giving blood and holding services at Cummer Lodge. WE have grown by our service to you and we hope that you have grown with us! Our faith has been stretched and our vision expanded. Our hearts and lives have been touched by the startling hurts of our world. Because of this, we will never be the same. Complacency is not our calling, ACTION IS. We hope that you will continue to put your faith into action and in doing so, will deepen your faith in Christ.

Love in Christ, Pieter and Heather

EDITORS' NOTE

We both would like to personally thank our yearbook committee: Dave, for all the layout, photography and darkroom work; Darlene, Krista, Michelle and Lesley for all layout work; and Kathleen, our treasurer. What a team! We love you! Thanks to Mr. Bret Maukonen and Dr. John Unger, our supervisors, for all their encouragement and support.

We would also like to thank the OBC community for allowing us to serve OBC in this manner. And a big thank you to those who helped by contributing pictures and cooperated by letting us take pictures even if you didn't want us to. And, of course, we are thankful to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who was and is our strength and our song (Psalm 118:14) no matter what we went through.

Thanks for Everything Glen!

You're Amazing! Cindy

Love in Christ,

Cindy Lopez

A SPECIAL DEDICATION

REV. B. GORDON WRIGHT

This yearbook is dedicated to Rev. B. Gordon Wright, an OBC faculty in the Dept. of General Arts. Professor Wright teaches Histories and the early church, and has been at OBC since 1964. He is well appreciated by many students in the school, especially those in his arts and history classes. We would like to thank Prof. Wright for the 24 years he has served, loved and cared for everyone in the OBC community. From all of us 'young folks', may the Lord continue to bless you, Rev. Wright.
